About Us

The Organisation

The organisation is known as Shia Ithna'ashari Community of Middlesex (SICM) and its centre in North Harrow is known as Mahfil Ali. SICM also has a registered charity operating under the name of Battlers Well Foundation (BWF).

Shared Vision

All activities of the organisation are focussed on being for the sake of Allah (SWT) and to elevate the taqwa of the participants.

What happens at Mahfil Ali

Members of SICM are called Councillors, and they make up the SICM Council which is the supreme body of the organisation. It elects an Executive Committee every two years to plan and implement all its events. The Executive Committee may then appoint further sub-committees to run and manage day to day activities and special events such as seminars, exhibitions and excursions. Council membership is available to any person who meets the constitutional acceptance criteria and is nominated by a Councillor. There is no fee for joining or remaining as a Councillor, or for using the facilities of the Centre.

Anyone can attend the programmes. The language of communication for all functions, publications and media is English. Where possible, translation into English of supplications recited in Arabic are available either via a projection, aurally or as text. During lectures, speakers are seated so that they can be seen by the sisters and brothers. All sessions are interactive and speakers are expected to answer relevant questions from both sides at the end of their discourse.

The Media Department can provide either audio or video recordings of all programmes, and there are plans to have live broadcasts via the Internet.

Funding

SICM is independent of any other religious or political organisation. It is funded wholly by voluntary donations from Councillors and well wishers.

North Harrow Assembly Hall

By the Grace of Allah (SWT), SICM, with the help of its Councillors, well wishers, and supporting bankers has acquired the Hall as its permanent worship, meeting and gathering place. Some free car parking is available on site, during events. Parking on adjacent streets is mostly allowed, but please check for restrictions at particular times of the day.

Regular activities at Mahfil Ali include:

- ◆ Yoga classes for women on Mondays
- ◆ Du'a programme on Thursday evenings
- ◆ Friday lectures, often with prominent guests
- ◆ Majalis in English on birth and death anniversaries of Ma'sumin and during Muharram
- ◆ Occasional seminars and other programmes
- ◆ Weekly Sunday Tafsir classes
- ◆ Weekly Sports Club at a local leisure centre (at a nominal charge)
- ◆ Qur'an reading, Children's programme and Iftar, daily in the month of Ramadan
- ◆ Eid prayers
- ◆ GCSE and A level tuition classes on Saturdays
- ◆ Daily Salaat
- ◆ Ghusl facilities
- ◆ Gatherings by other Muslim organisations
- ◆ Regular Youth trips and functions
- ◆ Husayni Madrasah on Sundays

In addition, SICM through the Battlers Well Foundation (BWF) has secured a vital facility. A dedicated graveyard with over three hundred burial spaces has been reserved at the Woodcock Hill Cemetery in Harefield. The cemetery already houses about a hundred graves.

Future Plans

The SICM centre is now well established. The main hall has been extensively refurbished. Within 10 years, it is intended to build a new purpose-built structure at the existing site which will incorporate:

- ◆ Library and information centre for Muslims and those seeking sources on Islam
- ◆ Internet access provision for the community
- ◆ Seminar rooms and lecture theatres
- ◆ Educational coaching classes
- ◆ Café and Restaurant
- ◆ Sports Centre

Throughout its 30 years of activity, SICM has remained true to its objectives of bringing a diverse group of Shi'is together and also develop mutually reinforcing and respectful relations with the Muslim community at large. This will continue to be its mission as it develops its activities further and becomes a focal point for Muslims in the North West and London.
