

Sura Hadid

1. What does 'Hadid' mean? The sura lists some of the benefits of it (Hadid) – list what they are. Give the ayat number.

What is the symbol for hadid on the Periodic Table of Elements? What number element is it on the table?

What is the most widely used metal – and accounts for 95% of total metal production in the world?

2. This sura starts with the word: سَبَّحَ ; what does this mean in English?

Six other suras in the Holy Quran begin in a similar manner – what is the name of such surahs in the Qur'an that start with the glorification of Allah (swt)? Name the six other suras in this category.

3. Which 3 prophets are mentioned in this sura?
4. In this sura, Allah (swt) tells the believers to prove that they actually believe – what is the main way in which they are expected to prove their belief? Give the ayat number(s).

5. Islam teaches us that sadaqa does not have to be monetary – even a smile is charity!
Before you colour the picture below, describe what you see. What can you do to help?

6. In ayat #20, Allah (swt) gives a bird's eye view of what the life of this world is all about for most people. Five phases are mentioned – list them.
7. In contrast to the above, in ayat #21, the believers are urged to 'race towards' something – what is it?
8. This sura describes the attitude that a believer should have when afflicted with a calamity. What does it offer as a solution in this situation? Give the ayat number(s).
9. In this sura, a graphic description of the Day of Judgment is given where the believers are contrasted against the hypocrites. Define the word 'hypocrisy'.
- Ayats #12-15 tell of a special thing that the believers will have and that the hypocrites long for on the Day of Judgment – what is that special thing?
10. It is customary to set resolution at the start of each New Year, in January. Try to set some resolutions for yourself this Ramadhan on how you are going to become a better person inside and out! Remember the aim is to please Allah (swt)!

Bonus: Print out and decorate your own mini-sadaqa box!

